RIO GRANDE VALLEY

BYLINERS

Next Meeting:

Saturday, September 13 at 1:30 PM

Harlingen Public Library

Our speaker will be local writer and historian Norman Rozeff who will present “Delving into Valley History.”

Norman writes about and has web pages on Valley history, Harlingen history and Cameron County history. Google him! You’ll find lots of resources that illustrate the depth of his experience.

Last year, New Sanfander Press published his book *Sugarcane and the Development of the Lower Rio Grande Valley, 1875-1922.*

Learn how to: get started with your research, find and use resources, determine your audience, and identify options. You may find this helpful as you work on your stories for our next book. I’m working on a story, set in 1905 to 1920 in Harlingen and was able to learn a lot about life in the Valley at that time from Norman’s material

P.S. Jack talked to Norman this week and he confirmed that he WILL be there!

The next Byliners book

Mona will finish her book project next week and is ready to start editing stories for the new Byliners book!

These will be stories about people in the Valley. All ages. Any time , past – present – or future! Fiction or non-fiction. Send your stories to Mona at monawriter@aol.com. She’s waiting!
